

The Philosophy of Education Society of Great Britain (PESGB)
in partnership with Roehampton University present

Philosophy of Education Summer School (Residential - FREE for undergraduate students)

Monday 28th June to Wednesday 30th June 2010

- Are you an undergraduate (of any discipline) with an interest in Philosophy of Education?
- Would you like the experience of attending a Philosophy of Education Society of Great Britain (PESGB) Summer School at Roehampton University this summer?
- Come and meet other interested undergraduates, spend a few days at our beautiful London campus and rekindle your inspiration and motivation for your studies!
- You need not be particularly experienced in studying philosophy, but you should have an enthusiasm for philosophy of education and you should enjoy thinking and reading about philosophical issues in education and discussing these ideas.

The 2010 theme is:

Children: Rights and Relationships

The Summer School will be run through presentations, seminars and discussion led by academics in the field of philosophy of education. The Summer School will be held at Roehampton in London.

COSTS: The PESGB is covering all expenses except for travel to and from Roehampton. Tuition, on-site accommodation for two nights and all meals are provided by the PESGB.

APPLICATIONS: Limited places are available. All applications must be sent by post. PLEASE NOTE - email applications will NOT be considered. The application must include the following three items:

1. A letter from you explaining why you wish to attend the Summer School and how you feel it will benefit your studies (maximum 300 words).
2. A supporting reference from a tutor on your undergraduate course (one paragraph of 50 words is sufficient).
3. Proof of registration at your institution (this should be on headed note paper).

Please post these documents to: Natalie O'Driscoll, Lulham Building, Roehampton University, Roehampton Lane, London SW15 5PJ
